THE POWER OF FRACTIONAL TRADING

Instead of owning a share, fractional share ownership means that an investor owns only part or a fraction of a share. This allows an investor to build up exposure to a particular stock even if the stock trades at a high nominal price and simultaneously build up a diversified portfolio - with a very small investment amount.

LEGAL & REGULATORY PERSPECTIVE

- Focus on wrapper or content?
- Where does "investor protection" start?
- Regulatory architecture fit for future?
- Levelled Playing field ensured?
